

Mid-East Prophecy Update – November 15th, 2009

- Every week, we set aside a few minutes on Sunday mornings to look at Bible prophecy
- The reason for this is because the Bible predicts certain events that will take place in the last days before the Lord returns.
- We believe that what's happening in the world today is a fulfillment of those Bible Prophecies.

- We look primarily at events in the Middle East, specifically related to Israel because, as it's been said; "Israel is God's prophetic clock."
- For today's update I think I would be grossly remiss were I not to address something that has really come to the forefront in recent days.
- I'm speaking of the political correctness with which this nation is enveloped in to it's in own peril as evidenced by the Ft. Hood terrorist.

BIBLE PROPHECY TODAY – Saturday, November 14th, 2009 – “Correct or Politically Correct?” - By Hal Lindsey - Last week's massacre at Fort Hood, Texas, by an Army psychiatrist who is a Muslim, may finally expose the almost stupefying adherence to political correctness by Big Media, our government, and the Left. The levels to which they're willing to sink to be "PC" is almost mind-boggling. What's more, it's insidious and deadly. For years I've thought that America's decline in the last days may be caused by economic excess, failures, or catastrophe. But, now, I'm beginning to think that America's inevitable decline may well be caused by the millstone now firmly affixed around her neck: "political correctness." ...We have already forgotten a great lesson from our own recent history: it's more important to be 'correct' than 'politically correct.' The Bible warns that a nation that has been given great light from God, and rejects it, will be given a mind, by God, that cannot even think in its own best interest. That's a perfect definition of 'political correctness.' And that's what's happening in America right now.

<http://bible-prophecy-today.blogspot.com/2009/11/correct-or-politically-correct.html>

The Daily Cougar.com – Monday, November 9th, 2009 - Being politically correct kills 13 - - On Thursday, Maj. Nidal Malik Hasan allegedly carried out the second deadliest Islamic terrorist attack on American soil since Sept. 11. Leaving 13 dead and 29 wounded ... authorities said Hasan screamed "Allahu Akbar" before he commenced his deadly assaults. With all this evidence to point to his radical Islamic beliefs as a motive, why are we trying to sugar coat his intent? Given ... the warning signs that brought Hasan to the FBI's attention, why was he not thoroughly investigated? The answer is that to investigate someone like Hasan in this current national climate would be politically unacceptable. Any in-depth investigation could have incurred a lawsuit and discrimination charges, something our ... [political correctness] tries to avoid at all costs.

<http://www.thedailycougar.com/being-politically-correct-kills-13-1.2058144>

- Perhaps I can say it this way; "what being politically correct tries to avoid at all costs, in the end will cost all."
- Under the banner of political correctness, evil is called "good" and good is called "evil." Consider what the Prophet Isaiah recorded:

Isaiah 5:20 "Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!" (KJV)

- Suffice it to say; "political correctness has come at the expense of Biblical correctness, thus evil is called good, and good is called evil."
- As believers, we must hold to Biblical correctness and call evil; "evil." We are living in evil days and need to be wise like never before.

Ephesians 5:15-17 15 Be very careful, then, how you live-not as unwise but as wise, 16 making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil. 17 Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is. NIV