

Mid-East Prophecy Update – February 21st, 2010

- Every week, we set aside a few minutes on Sunday mornings to look at Bible prophecy
- The reason for this is because the Bible predicts certain events that will take place in the last days before the Lord returns.
- We believe that what's happening in the world today is a fulfillment of those Bible Prophecies.

- We look primarily at events in the Middle East, specifically related to Israel because, as it's been said; "Israel is God's prophetic clock."
- At the beginning of the year we started looking at a number of prophecies to keep an eye on in the New Year, as a "watch-list" of sorts.
- It's important to understand that this list is not in any particular order, nor is it an attempt to make any predictions or set any dates.

1. America becoming more vulnerable to Islamic terrorist attacks

2. Global economies continuing to decline even going bankrupt

3. U.S. Dollar continuing to decline even collapsing

4. Christians will be increasingly persecuted and Muslims will become increasingly accepted

5. An accelerated deterioration of the churches spiritual condition

6. A move forward and toward the wiping of Israel off the map

7. The Russian-Iranian led Islamic alliance of nations being ever so close to attacking Israel

8. The Potential for a Ruinous War Destroying Damascus Syria

Isaiah 17:1 The burden against Damascus. "Behold, Damascus will cease from being a city, And it will be a ruinous heap. NKJV

The Jerusalem Post - Syria warns: Next war will be ruinous - Saturday, February 20th, 2010 - Syrian PM says if future conflict erupts it will affect "the region and beyond." - Syrian Prime Minister Naji al-Otari on Saturday warned Israel that any new Mideast war would be catastrophic for the region and beyond. ...Syria's foreign minister warned Israel earlier this month that any new war would reach Israeli cities, to which Foreign Minister Avigdor Lieberman responded that the Syrian army would be defeated and its regime would collapse in any future conflict.
